Andrea B. Tinianow, a Delaware attorney, is the Director of Corporate and International Development for the State of Delaware.

Ms. Tinianow leads a team responsible for developing and implementing strategies to drive international business to the State of Delaware.

Prior to joining the Department of State, Ms. Tinianow was Vice President Business Development and Assistant General Counsel of Corporation Service Company (CSC) a privately-held, global, corporate services company. Ms. Tinianow was responsible for developing new products and services for the company. She also managed litigation, advised senior managers, and developed legal policies.

Before she joined CSC's General Counsel Office, Ms. Tinianow was a litigation attorney in the Wilmington office of Pepper Hamilton L.L.P., and a law clerk to William B. Chandler III, former Chancellor of the Delaware Court of Chancery. Ms. Tinianow graduated magna cum laude from Widener University School of Law, where she was an editor of the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law, and a Wolcott law clerk to the Hon. Randy Holland of the Delaware Supreme Court.

Before attending law school, Ms. Tinianow was a marketing director for Thomson Financial Services. Ms. Tinianow received her undergraduate degree in economics from Brown University.
